

Motor Dealer Council of BC Board Announcement

July 6, 2004

Burnaby, BC – The Motor Dealer Council of BC (MDC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Ken Bessason of Kelowna as a member of its Board of Directors.

Bessason, President of the Kelowna Chamber of Commerce, is the final board member to be appointed to the 11-member board.

“Ken’s extensive financial background with the TD Canada Trust coupled with his professional and community-based affiliations make him a welcome addition to our board,” said Bob Stewart, Chair of the MDC.

Bessason joins Vice Chair George Morfitt (Victoria) and Directors James Carter (North Vancouver), Gary Cowell (Delta), Edd Crooks (Sardis), Shell Harvey (Victoria), Neil Kalawsky (Castlegar), Catherine Rankine (New Westminster), John Ratel (Victoria) and Anne Salomon (Langley).

The MDC is a non-profit organization delegated by the Province of BC to administer and enforce the Motor Dealer Act. The MDC focuses on four areas of service: the licensing of approximately 1,700 motor dealers and their sales representatives, compliance, consumer inquiries and complaints and consumer relations and education.
